PRAYER INTENTIONS

Those who have died recently: especially Mary Kyne, Fr John's mother, who passed to eternal life on the 7th August. Please remember Mary and her family in your prayers.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intentions 2019: May families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly 'schools of true human growth'.

DRAFT PASTORAL PLAN FOR THE SHERWOOD DEANERY

Following our own parish meeting on Tuesday the 23 July 2019, which was well attended, our Dean Fr Michael O'Donoghue has asked us to make the following statement: The Dean wishes to thank the clergy and the people in their parishes who have reflected on The Draft Deanery Pastoral Plan. The responses from the parishes were shared and discussed by the clergy on Thursday 25 July. It was agreed to appoint a facilitator who will collate the responses. The comments will be used to revise the draft Sherwood Deanery Pastoral Plan and be presented to Bishop Patrick by September 2019. His thoughts and recommendations will be relayed to us for further refinement so that we can build a sustainable structure for the church in the area. Five priests will be allocated to Sherwood Deanery by 2021 based on the present age profile and health of the clergy.

The minutes of our own parish consultation are available on our website and at the back of our churches.

The numbers are constant and are likely to increase during August when the Beacon Centre is closed! We are in desperate need for men's socks especially, as the weather becomes colder. Also, if anyone needs to get rid of tents and sleeping bags we can always use them! Thanks and love to you all. Lu.
